1. You might be interested in the following facts:

On July 18, 1951 in a personal letter I requested Headquarters to furnish me with a French speaking secretary. On 3 April 1952 a young lady arrived stating that she had been sent to fill this request. She cannot speak French and she has not taken dictation for seven years. In this latter connection she advised me that although she spent four months waiting to be [REDACTED] she was never given an opportunity to practice her shorthand but was only given carding and a certain amount of typing.
